Ex. 1. We are learning to use prepositions for time, place and cause.

[illegible]

I drove along the road and saw a near a trucking yard. I looked at the white truck and saw the mountainside elegant. I decided to buy it and and have a look at it but somebody pulled my hair and stopped me from going above the truck.

So I went back to camp and I could smell burning and it smelt like a fire. If it blew my way. Everybody was sleeping because they ~~were~~ ~~thought~~ thought the fire had already ~~gone~~ through the campsite. I saw drifting ash hanging on a still sack waiting to be eaten.

What a massive improvement Luke!
Well done!
