L.O. we are learning to use descriptive language in our writing.

Dear Diary,

Yesterday I had a really shocking morning! And first we went fishing for fish because the whole village had nothing to eat. So me nowzer went on boat and started fishing and then we caught one fish. Then we went back home and cut the fish up and and cooked it. Then me and nowzer eat all the fish and pies.

Then the crashing thunder came and really frightened nowzer and nowzer was so frightened paniced and paniced Tom saw. Like works and Tom was amazed and Tom was in a roaring rage storm and Tom was so scared that his head exploded. Tom in the storm rainie storm on the boat bits crenching. He did not know what to do because will I go back or stay on he thought. He did not know what to do. Tom seemed to smell the fishy sea. but Tom tried to go back home so he did. But he sailed and sailed but there was no way home to see nowzer/ all his village's friends. So I could not stand this. I really wanted my beautiful <sup>lovely</sup> little cake nowzer. so we went home!

You have started great but remember are you Tom or Nowzer? I'm acting as Tom. Check you aren't just telling the story.
