Lot L.O. tiber We are learning to use appropriate punctuation.

Please come and help me. I am stuck on an island. Please send help. For the last 3 weeks I was stuck on an island and im running out of food. I am stranded on a island please come help.

My name is Jimmy Button and I am 9 years old. He tried to use his glasses to make a fire but there was never any sun. I wish I didn't play football and <sup>help to</sup> get more cut shorts. Also I wish I didn't do sports and because then ~~also~~ I could catch more food like a <sup>hard</sup> ~~board~~ fish. It was on a boat with my parents when we crashed into a huge rock. The boat began to sink and I had to swim for to safety. This island is where I ended up.

EBI you use commas to separate ideas rather than mid idea.
