

So the men tied up Jimmy and threw him in the sea! As Jimmy was under w

4 Young Boy Discovered On Peasey Island.

A small boy, nicknamed Jimmy Button, was found on a sandy island of the coast of Argentina. Captain Fitz Roy was sailing to Tierra del Fuego in the early morning (21st August 1836) and discovered the native boy, Fuegon. He Captain Fitz Roy had traveled across the Ocean with seven crew members on the H.M.S. Beagle and found a young boy. We named him Jimmy Button just as we were about to leave he jumped on the boat. Since we were looking for civilizations they let him come back to England.