

Monday 23rd September 2019

L.O. We are learning to use different Sentence openers.

Deep down in the ~~star~~ glorious Sea, there lived a dolphin and a turtle. The dolphin was clean and blue. The turtle had a lovely pattern on its shell. One day they went hunting ~~but~~ in the sea and brought back a patch of fish and eat them all up. They did the same thing again, but this time they invited some friends around and they were called, Madie, Aia, Avantihi and Sophie. It was a joyful day. ~~One day~~ One day they went fishing but there was no fish they were confused; but, but I don't understand they were ~~last week~~ here last week! "Let's go somewhere" Turtle said. "But where?" "Let's try the Open Ocean. Ok!" So they fished. So they went fishing, ~~and happy~~ happily the they patiently waited and waited and waited until there came a big bunch of fish. "Look Fish!" "Happily they bring them home and eat them all up. But by then they were fast asleep! After they had a good night's sleep they ate some more fish."

happy → happily
again
↑↑