

Tuesday 8th October 2019

We are learning to link ideas across paragraphs using a wide range of cohesive devices such as the repetition of a word or phrase, and grammatical connections.

How was rationing 'sold' to the people of Britain?

Rationing is a very fair way to share out ~~goods~~ goods. Firstly ~~was~~ when the initiative was introduced by the ~~government~~ government. It was introduced 8th January 1940. Rationing means sharing clothes, food ~~and~~ and more. Secondly you would go to a shop in the ~~war~~ war and you will get a rationing book. You would get food and share it out with your family. Before the war, Britain imported 55 million tons of food a month. After ~~the~~ the war had started, this figure dropped to 12 million tons of food. As long as every one shared it would be fair.

The amount of food everyone will get is... One fresh egg, 2 oz of butter, 1 oz of cheese, 2 oz of tea, 8 oz of ~~the~~ sugar, 4 rashies of bacon, 4 oz of margarine for one person. People started rationing because Germans were bombing ships and they would get no food. Germans were bombing ships because ~~the~~ they might want everyone to get weak so they can't fight back. Each family would ~~not~~ have a ration book.

On the other hand they would have to share clothes. They would of been ~~not~~ made to share equally. There was fourteen years of rationing. Families killed their own pigs, chicken, and ~~the~~ rabbits to eat.

Tijanna

Clothes rationing.

Clothes rationing was also very important. You would have to share ~~food~~ <sup>cloths</sup> because ~~the war was on for~~ world war two was on for six years. Inside the bomb shelter would be very dirty so they would need to change ~~the~~ clothes. Some people wouldn't want to share ~~foods~~ <sup>clothes</sup> but they wouldn't want to be wearing dirty clothes. They wouldn't wash because they ~~would be~~ <sup>were</sup> in a bomb shelter. ~~And~~ <sup>And</sup> they would of been dirty for 6 years. Only in world war two it began 1st June 1941 and two years after food rationing started. Clothes rationing was introduced by the government. ~~There were~~ some ~~good~~ <sup>goods</sup> that ~~were~~ were not rationed such as vegetables. They would entertain their ~~sets~~ <sup>sets</sup> with games. ~~or set~~ Self or other people with games.

Was it effective?

do

I ~~don't~~ ~~think~~ think it ~~was~~ was effective because every one would find it fair. If there ~~wasn't~~ was not rationing then ~~no~~ no-one would find it fair. They ~~There~~ There was fourteen years of rationing in ~~the~~ Britain. It ended midnight fourth July 1954. Things like razors blades, baby bottles, frying pans and more. Although children are young, They would still have to ration. You would get coupons for your clothes in your rationing book.