L.O: We are learning to write instructions. We are learning to use subordinating conjunctions.

LOOK left and right at a zebra crossing at a traffic light.
STOP at the side of the kerb ^{kerb pavement} then wait.
it's dangerous. Oh the road is so silly and walk when you get to the middle of the night. Ah
the island
the car's are speedy. Oh the motorway so
don't cross there.

✓ Clear, detailed instructions!

E.B.1 - Could you have included any more subordinating conjunctions?

Capital letter
