Staff News

This week, I have the lovely news to share that Mrs Bright and her husband are expecting a baby, due in September! I know you will all join me in sending best wishes to the Bright family.

We'll be saying goodbye to two valued members of our TA team in the coming weeks. Mrs Clarke has secured a new job in the office at Thamesmead and Miss Page is embarking on a new adventure with a role at Camp America! We thank both of them for all their hard work and wish them all the best for the future.

A reminder to come along to the book fair after school each day next week, located outside the music studio. Remember it's a cashless book fair.

Oracy Question of the Week

'Would you rather have extremely long legs or extremely long arms?'

Values Awards

Well done to these children whose names were pulled from the class jars this week. They all had proud slips in the jar for showing kindness and respect in Spring I:

RB – Harrison
RGM – Paul
1JK – Sophie
1K – Shiv
2B – Amber
2DM – Daisy
3C – Max
3W – Isaac
4K – Katie
4P – Iyla
5A – Varesh
5P – Heidi
6L – Blake
6R – Nathaniel

All of these children will receive their reward before the Easter holidays.

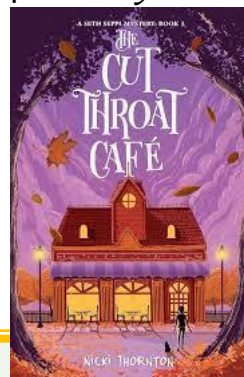

Reading

This week's recommendation is from 6L who have enjoyed reading the book 'The Cut-Throat Café' by Seth Seppi.

Seth and his talking cat Nightshade arrive in the magical town of Gramichee to gain an apprenticeship: he's finally ready to qualify as a magician.

But he soon discovers that the existing apprentices are under attack at the town's Scrumdiddlyumptious Café, which is far more deadly than it is delightful.

Seth's got his hands full, as usual. Can he pass his exams, discover who's murdering the apprentices, and stop them before they strike again?

Message from the Y6 Play Leaders

Please can all children's coats be labelled with the child's name and class so that they can be easily returned?

The Year 6 children are doing a great job of supporting lunchtimes and feel this will help make their job easier when it comes to tidying up at the end of lunch.

Thank you
