Lo: We are learning to use appropriate punctuation.

The religion of Judaism <sup>has</sup> many important figures. These people Moses, Abraham and David were dedicated to God for many years. All these men changed the face of Judaism forever! These men came famous for worshipping God. They also listen to God and do what he says.

Moses lived his life working as a shepherd and worshipping God. ~~So in the end~~ Moses got told the 10 commandments. Moses became famous for helping homeless slaves and setting them free. Although Moses had his whole life working as a shepherd and worshipping God he still enjoyed a long and happy life and soon became king.

him* Abraham also spent his whole life working as a shepherd and having a good relationship with God. Abraham all ways asked God loads of questions and tried to be smarter than God*, but in the end Abraham and God had an amazing and happy relationship.

Goliath*
Goliath* David was born as a shepherd and was for many years. Until he defeated a big, massive, gigantic giant called Goliath*. David became a very famous king for defeating Goliath the giant!, because nobody could defeat him until David came along.

The three men Abraham, Moses and David became famous because they all saved peoples lives/slaves lives, and worshiped God in a good way and even better they all ways did what he said even if it was a risk to their lives. I think

I think the most important out of David, Abraham and Moses ~~is~~ is Moses because he got told The ten commandments and he can be trusted to god the most. The 2nd most important <sup>is</sup> are David because he can defeat bad people like Goliath the giant so he can be trusted to defeat bad people. The 3rd important is Abraham I think Abraham is less important because Abraham always asked god loads of questions and he can isn't that ~~important~~ important than Moses but Abraham is still important because he believes in god and worships him to
