Lo: we are learning to use appropriate punctuation.

The monotheistic religion of Judaism has many important figures. The three ~~are~~ important figures are Moses, Abraham & David. These three men changed the whole intire of Judaism forever. Through their dedication to god and goodness in following gods path, even if it seems impossible.

Abraham is won of the important figures. Did you know that Abraham ~~to~~ challenged god alot. Then Ab had a very special relationship with him. Abraham the first ~~for~~ person to teach the idea that there was only ~~to~~ one god; before the, people believed in many gods. The story of Abraham and his desc is found in the book of Genesis. We first meet him in Genesis chapter 11, although ~~as~~ at this stage his name is Abram. There ~~are~~ is very little biographical detail about him apart from the fact that he was a shepherd and came from ur in Mesopotamia - modern day Iraq after which he ~~had~~ and his family moved, his father Terah, to Haran.

~~The Jewish~~ Moses is another won of the important figures. Moses led the Jews out of ~~st~~ slavery in Egypt ~~to~~ and led them to the Holy Land that god had promised them. The escape of the Jews from Egypt is remembered by Jews every year in the festival of Passover. Over a thousand years after Abraham, the Jews were living as slaves in Egypt.

Their leader was a prophet called Moses. Moses also knew all of the Ten Commandments. At the same time, God gave the Jews a set of rules that they should live by. Most scholars date the beginning of Judaism as an organized and structured religion to this time.
