The use of propaganda was essential in helping the Nazis maintain control over the German people. How far do you agree with this statement?

Propaganda is information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote a political cause ^{or} point of view.

Propaganda was used to create the universal view that the German family was content. An example of this is shown in the poster, alternatively, known as 'The State of Deception'. ^{SP} This poster portrays an overarching eagle. Firstly, the eagle is brave, strong bird, who appears to be surrounding this family. My interpretation of this, is that the Nazi party were trying to maintain a view that the common people and government worked in unity. ^{SP}

They wanted their allies to think that Germany was supported by its nation, so that they seemed to have a strong network of support. With a strong network, came strong soldiers. Therefore, this shared view tried to persuade other countries to think brave about him actions on a family field Germany. ^{suited}
