Story

On Christmas eve I woke up from my sleep and I saw curiosities through my clear window then I rushed down stairs to see what happened. They were looking at me like I was a wizard. I thought I was in a different planet the girl looked around and I was so surprised I couldn't believe what I saw the girl was about to explode like a volcano..... they were all staring at me like I was a main character. I didn't know what they were thinking that I was going to hurt them they looked cute and very tall. they had tags around their neck it looked like they were looking up at me.

They looked like they were sad and lost there were so many there were 1000 of them I looked around the place and nothing was there just me and the White Snowman. I was confused I didn't know what to do I called my mum and dad they didn't know what to do either it was so weird.
