

Tuesday 10th December 2019

We are learning to proofread for punctuation errors, including use of semi-colons, colons, dashes, function or bullet points in lists, use of hyphens.

Rose Blanche, (a German girl,) had walked through the forest when she had spotted the ~~table~~ ~~concentration~~ concentration camp. Rose had seen how hungry the children were. When she stopped ~~panicing~~ panicing the Jewish children were crying in pain as Hitler starved them. Rose decided to make a plan. Hitler had punished them for being themselves. By ~~unfortunally~~ Unfortunally, Hitler had shaved their hair and ~~changed~~ changed these clothes. Rose wasn't sure what to do. She wanted to make the children happier but she was scared to be seen. The children weren't in a good way. Poor Rose wanted to sort everything out but Hitler would not like that, (as she was a German child.)

Through the forest Rose walked anxiously. She felt confused as to why they have locked them up. Rose was thinking of an idea. When Rose had got home her mother arrived after being shopping. "Rose, where are you?" Said her mother. "Here but I need to go to school." Replied Rose. Rose had awkwardly led to her mum just for those children. She quickly grabbed some jam and apples.

Rose had arrived at the ~~disco~~ concentration camp but Rose had been ~~caught~~ caught (The soldiers