

Monday 13th January 2020

L.O. We are learning to use a range of punctuation in our writing.

When Caesar's came back from victory all of the crowd was rejoicing. There were two people who weren't jubilant ~~with~~ which were Flavius and Marcellus. They were disheartened because they didn't believe <sup>in Caesar</sup> so they told everyone to go and work.

Flavius asked someone what they sell and they were a carpenter. ~~As Aster would they he went to someone else and they were a cobbler.~~ Marcellus said that Flavius and Marcellus were madly out of control because they don't want people to be jubilant. ~~Later on he asked "What do you sell?" asked Flavius. "I am a cobbler."~~ replied the cobbler.

Marcellus and Flavius had a talk ~~by~~ madly and were not happy to see that Caesar was back. When whilst ~~so~~ ~~heavily~~ everyone was celebrating. Flavius and Marcellus were ~~not~~ ~~with~~ time