Lo: We are learning to give structure to our writing
Cinderella

Once upon a time <sup>there</sup> lived a lovely girl called Ella. She lived with her ~~mother~~ mother and her father. The mother loved playing with Ella. They would think they were fairies. Unfortunately her mother got really ill so she couldn't play with Ella. Ella's life was turned upside down. Her mother died. Her father married a new wife. She brought 2 daughters. They were <sup>very</sup> ugly. They ~~had~~ made <sup>Ella</sup> to do lots of jobs.

One day Ella became Cinderella because she had lots of cinders on her. She would work and work. A few days later she was asked to wash floors and fold clothes. A letter came and it said there was going to be a ball she got really excited. Her step mother gave her lots of jobs so she couldn't go.
