Lo! We are leaving to write a sentence by saying aloud before we write it.

people staring at a star in the night, lightning <sup>glaring intensely</sup> ~~glared~~ really really bright.
wet hair dropping from the sky.

everyone staring they don't really know why, thunder booming around the <sup>subit</sup> city of Rome.

It is strong enough to break someones home, citizens are wondering is this a bad thing.

It is this just the doing of the god of the sky,

Enough to give people a <sup>very</sup> fright!

Amazing!
