

When the colours fight

Use me, said Red,

My colour is number one,

I am the colour of devils and desire.

I will warn you: when danger is near.

If you do not pick me, you will end up with pink.

No! Use me, said Orange,

I am the colour of lava,
and the bright sunset.

I am surely number one,
you must choose me.

You should use me, said Yellow,

I am the colour of happiness and crystal clear sand.

I am the most important,
do not miss me out.

Hold on - what about me?

I am green, the colour of life.

Trees, leaves, branches and bugs,
the whole earth is made from me -

We will perish without green,
so surely choose me.
