

Colours Argument

Use me, said Green,

I am really keen.

I am the colour of nature,

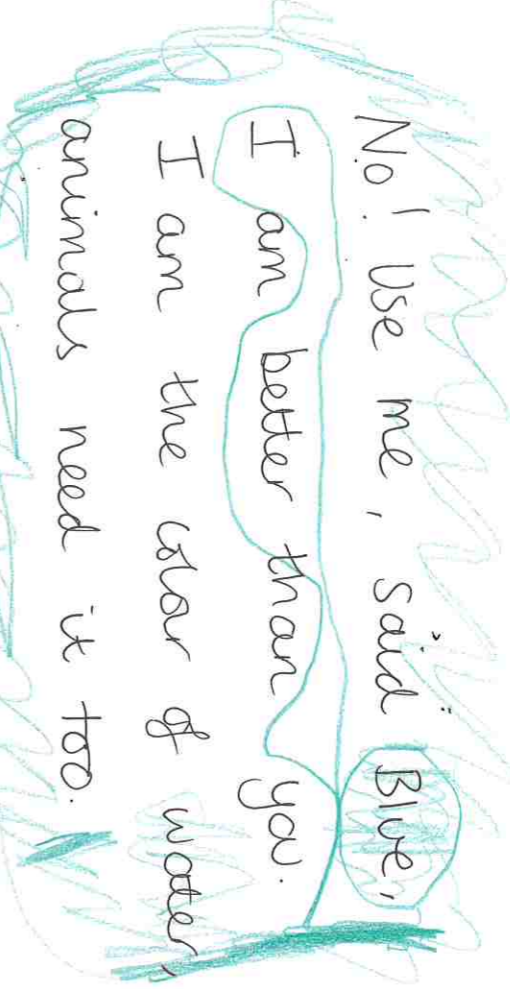

even birds are the colours of me.

No! Use me, said Blue,

I am better than you.

I am the colour of water, animals need it too.

I am better, I am red, the colour to make you dead. Everything dries, so I am surely the best.

I am rich, I am expensive,

I am Purple, the best colour an artist can use. £10 000 000 = 10M

Even the queen would agree with me.

I am dark, I am great,

I am the colour black.

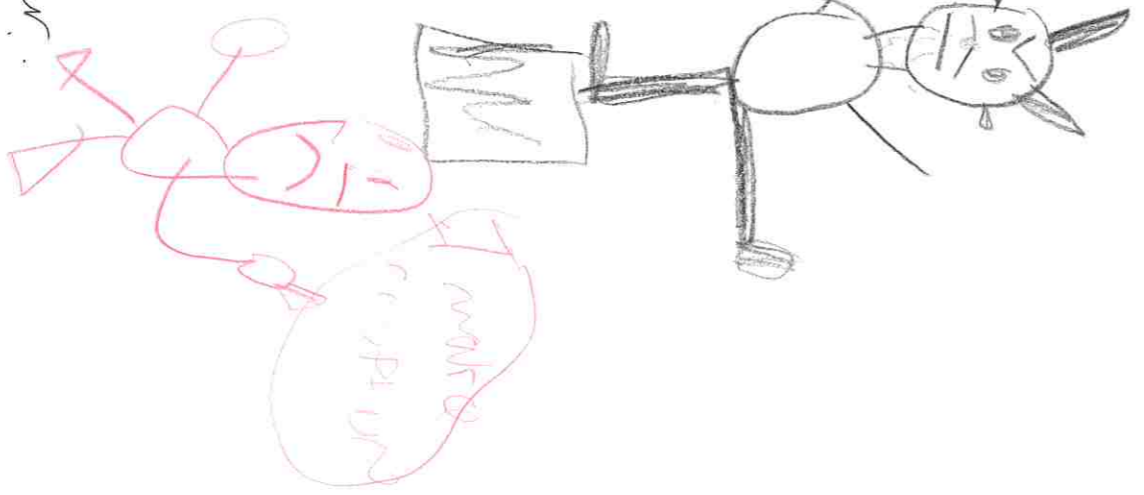

Tell me your secrets and I will hide them,

I am your dark side.

No, I am better,

I am in your breakfast, I am everywhere

You got it, I am white.

I will choose none of you, said the painter.

I am making a sculpture better than anything in the world.

The colour said, "No! Why not us?"

The painter said, "I don't feel like it today!"
