LC: We are learning to use a range of sentence openers.

Dear Calpurnia,

I tried to write this as fast as I could so it will be a little bit ~~scruffy~~ ^{rushed}. I heard that you were suffering of a bad nightmare is that right? I am the best agency ~~and~~ agent in Rome, and I know to what to do because this has happened to me before. Your Julius Caesar's wife I think.

I suggest you take deep breath and do not ~~was~~ feel scared ok. Keep your mind of it, it's all alright do bad-dreams are scary. Rest your mind and think of happy things. This is a daunting thing.

This took me a long time to make. This is the best peace so I hope it helped. If it didn't work contact me and I will help.

Kind regards, Abbot Sibyl,
