

Thursday 6th February 2020

L.O. We are learning to select appropriate grammar and vocabulary.

The Tudor reign commenced in 1485 and ~~ended~~^{ceased} in 1605. This time in history was traumatic, however it was full of great accomplishments. There ~~was~~^{were} many ruthless ~~the~~ monarchs but who was the best?

Henry VIII:

One of the most famous kings was Henry VIII. He was known for his ~~height~~ ^{huge} ~~obese~~ ^{obese} ~~obese~~ body and six wives! This overweight king loved to show off his wealth and created many ^{magnificent} buildings such as Hampton Court Palace. He was a strong willed man who executed anyone who stood in his way. 70,000 people were killed beheaded during his reign including ~~two~~ ^{two} of his wives! ^{It is said} Many people ~~believe~~ ^{believe} he is ~~one~~ Henry was a ruthless man and a terrible king.

~~Henry VIII:~~
Elizabeth I:

Elizabeth I, (daughter of Henry VIII) ruled the England from 1558-1603. This ~~golden~~ ^{golden} period of British history was ~~referred~~ ^{referred} to

was the 'Golden Age' since she ~~resto~~
restored peace between the Catholics and the Protestant church. When she was two years old her mother was beheaded but her resilient ~~lead~~ lead her through this tragic time. Under her leadership she defeated the Spanish ~~arm~~ Armada and let music, the arts and exploration thrive.
Despite her achievements, she Elizabeth always left important decisions to the last minute. Due to her inability to find a husband, she ended the Tudor era.

Henry VII:

Henry VIII rather Henry VII was a placid king who unlike his son, ^{he} didn't go around chopping chopping everyone's heads off. It is said that he was ~~a~~ so wise and attentive to everything.
Some of the worst parts of his reign were that he tricked someone to give him the throne. This calm man taxed barons and had men punish & punishing them.

I believe that Elizabeth I was the best ruler ~~for~~