Top secret mission 2032...

Sat in front of thousands of buttons in a rocket with darkness lurking around me with swift wind tickling my toes. Approximately in five minutes I can go to sleep and Nathan can direct the rocket to another galaxy. Unexpectedly Nathan ^{exclaimed} 'crew! crew!' the radar has picked up something!', My suspicions were uncertain. As I looked out the window a ~~rapid~~ lightning bolt came at us at supersonic speed.

Looking at the radar I was shocked, in a galaxy far away from our earth, that would be out of this world. Our decisions were unique Nathan said 'why would I say no' ~~Sawana~~ Dylan said 'yes', rose said 'You don't know what is there' and I said 'ok'. So we head our little rocket to the mysterious planet. In sudden shock looking ~~ated~~ ahead ~~apl~~ after having dinner we saw a ~~large~~ gigantic planet with strips of thunder coming from top and ~~bas~~ bottom ~~as~~, the clouds zapped the planet as if it were an enemy.

I could tell rose was scared ^{as we went off} ~~we~~, dylan and nathan looked back every 10 seconds to see if Rose came but there was no point. As we ^{got closer} looked at the planet we started to regret it, we saw ~~shocking~~ shocking seas, crackling currents and it was like a ~~to~~ death trap. As we landed on the planet a vicious planet bolt coming at me as putting the plug on the planet.
