L.O: We are learning to write for a range of purposes.

The Beast likes in a big and busy city he felt annoyed and had a headache because ~~to~~ it was so loud. So He ~~decided~~ decided to go to another city called Paris because it is less loud, but he might see another beast. There are a lot. There was a river that led him to a rain forest, but didn't like it, it was too wet so he swam to the other side. He walked then swam again and ended up in the sea. He hated it it he was surrounded by fish. So he swam in the clouds there he saw France
and landed in Paris.
